

LOCAL NEWS

PLP SUPPORTERS STAGE MASSIVE EASTER MONDAY MOTORCADE

(PHOTOS: JENNEVA RUSSELL)

READY FOR THE ROAD – Progressive Liber Party (PLP) supporters showed up in droves yesterday for a motorcade from the party’s headquarters in Freeport, to the constituency of Member of Parliament for West GB and Bimini, Obie Wilchcombe, Minister of Tourism for a family fun day. Pictured is Marco City candidate, Norris Bain (second right), with supporter prior to the start of the motorcade.

LOADING THE BUSES – Progressive Liberal Party (PLP) supporters prepare to load the buses and vehicles yesterday for the massive motorcade.

PLP ALL THE WAY – Minister for Grand Bahama, Dr. Michael Darville (right) is pictured with a female supporter before the start of the motorcade yesterday.

ALL GOLD – Progressive Liberal Party (PLP) supporters were dressed in party color and sporting paraphernalia as they prepared to hit the road for the massive motorcade yesterday, from Freeport to West End.

GETTING STARTED – Progressive Liberal Party (PLP) Deputy Secretary General, Michelle Reckley is pictured speaking to the crowd of supporter prior to the yesterday’s motorcade.

IN THE WEST – Despite the heavy down pour, the motorcade continued into West End and droves of Progressive Liberal Party (PLP) supporters enjoyed a day planned by organizers.

IN THE WEST – Despite the heavy down pour, the motorcade continued into West End and droves of Progressive Liberal Party (PLP) supporters enjoyed a day planned by organizers.