Get the Gadgets

FeedYourPlayer.com recently announced its new name and mission: AbundaTrade.com. The newly revamped site offers a program for the growing number of people who are eager to reduce their carbon footprint, while at the same time obtain the latest and technology gadgets.

With AbundaTrade.com users trade in their old CDs and DVDs, and in return, receive the latest electronics, such as plasma TVs, digital cameras, and iPods.

Users visit the AbundaTrade Web site to determine the "value" of their CDs or DVDs. Each DVD or CD is assigned a certain number of credits based on their quality and condition. Those credits can then be used in turn to obtain a variety of technology items.

When users trade for a must-have gadget, AbundaTrade.com will then re-circulate the discs back into the market for other music and movie lovers to enjoy.

For additional information, visit www.abundatrade.com or contact Megan Freshley.
