HCC volleyball team rallies past Barton

BY THE NEWS STAFF

The Hutchinson Community College volleyball team rallied from two games down to defeat Barton County on Monday in Great Bend.

It was the 11th straight win for the Blue Dragons, who won 21-25, 25-27, 25-19, 25-20, 16-14.

Hutchinson (26-7) made 14 errors in the first game before playing a cleaner match the rest of the night.

Barton County did have a match point at 14-13 in the fifth game, but Hutchinson's Karol Marins and Kate Morrell combined on a stuff block to tie the match.

Barton County then a ball wide on the next point – the ball called out, then the referees were going to replay the point before allowing the original call to stand. Hutchinson then won the match on a Laura Schmidt kill.

Carol Logato led four Dragons with double-digit kills as she had 16 kills and 14 digs, while Debbie Ohl had 14 kills, six blocks and 17 digs.

"Debbie played pretty consistent all night," Hutchinson coach Ronda Shirley said.

Morrell and Marins added 13 and 10 kills, respectively, while Emma Russell had a season-high five kills and 32 set assists.

Laura Macek and Rainy Okeson led Barton County with 14 kills apiece.

1,823 points – 738 away from Austin Carr as Notre Dame's career leader. He needs 370 rebounds to pass Tom Hawkins as the Fighting Irish's career rebound leader, and averaging 20.6 points and 9.0 rebounds this season would make him the Big East's career leader in both categories, passing Syracuse's Lawrence Moten and Derrick Coleman, respectively..

Aldrich's stock rose all last season and it culminated with the first official triple-double in Kansas history when he had 13 points, 20 rebounds and 10 blocks in a second-round NCAA win over Dayton.

He averaged 14.9 points and 11.1 rebounds, joining national player of the year Blake Griffin of Oklahoma as the only players in the Big 12 to average a double-double last season.

Collins didn't become a full-time starter until last season when he averaged 18.9 points and 5.0 assists in earning third-team All-American honors. He and Aldrich are the stars of a deep Kansas team picked No. 1 in the preseason Top 25.

"I do think we return the best guard in the country and the best big man in the country," Kansas coach Bill Self said. "I think if you're going to start a team, why not have an anchor and why not have a guard?"

Aldrich and Cole are the first teammates chosen to the preseason team since J.J. Redick and Shelden Williams of Duke in 2005-06.

The 6-9 Patterson averaged 17.9 points and 9.3 rebounds for the Wildcats last season and he's expected to be more of an inside presence this season with the addition of freshman point guard John Wall to new coach John Calipari's offense.

Singler averaged 16.5 points and 7.7 rebounds last season for the Blue Devils but his role should change to more of a perimeter one this season.

to Alex Rodriguez in the first inning but settled in until A-Rod chased him with a two-run double in the eighth. Robinson Cano drove in Rodriguez with a sacrifice fly that cut the deficit to 8-5, and New York gave Philadelphia a scare when Jorge Posada doubled and Hideki Matsui singled at the start of the ninth against Ryan Madson.

Derek Jeter hit into a run-scoring double play, Johnny Damon singled and Madson struck out slumping Mark Teixeira for the save.

"We have a lot of heart on this team," Utley said.

The Yankees, who have won the Series all eight previous times they took a 3-1 lead, will try to close out title No. 27 on Wednesday night at home. Game 3 winner Andy Pettitte is likely to come back on three days' rest and face Game 2 loser Pedro Martinez.

"If we would have pitched today, we probably would have won," Yankees manager Joe Girardi said. "That's the bottom line."

Pitching on short rest didn't work well for Burnett, who had been 4-0 previously in his career on three days' off and kept the Phillies off balance in Game 2. He kept falling behind batters and allowed six runs, four hits and four walks in two-plus innings, his shortest start since his first outing in 2007.

Saints still unbeaten

NEW ORLEANS – The New Orleans Saints have tied their best start to a season.

Drew Brees had 308 yards passing, Pierre Thomas scored two touchdowns and Jabari Greer returned an interception for a score to help the Saints improve to 7-0 with a 35-27 victory over the Atlanta Falcons on Monday night. Only the 1991 Saints began a season with as many wins.

Greer's touchdown was the Saints' fifth score on an interception this season, tying a single-season franchise mark set in 1998. Tracy Porter also had an interception on the Saints' 1-yard line on a pass tipped by Jonathan Vilma in the fourth quarter, preserving a 28-24 lead.

Darren Sharper sealed the win with his seventh interception of the season in the final seconds.

KU men, KSU women tonight

The Kansas men and Kansas State women will play exhibition basketball games tonight against Fort Hays State.

Both games will start at 7 p.m., with the men playing in Lawrence and the women in Manhattan.

The FHSU-KU men's game will be televised by KSNW (cable channel 3).
